

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This, to us, means they have a responsibility to present propaganda as propaganda, not as news. Rules are needed to control companies like Sinclair. Voluntary regulation does not work.

Thank you.